DAYTON, Ohio, February 9, 1972 --- Forty-seven women who formerly wore the red and blue of the University of Dayton Flyerettes, a precision dance group, will return to their alma mater this Saturday for the second annual Flyerette alumni reunion. Women from Ohio, including 30 from Dayton; Pennsylvania, Michigan, Illinois and Maryland, will join the present Flyerette "girls of the line" at a 5:30 P.M. dinner in the Kennedy Union and then attend the Western Michigan-Dayton basketball game in the UD Arena as guests of the Athletic Department.

Joining the alumni women at both affairs will be their husbands and boyfriends. An "Hour of Reminiscing" will follow the dinner with the current captain, Connie Shuck, discussing the activities of the present Flyerettes and then opening a dialogue about "the old days."

A "Table of Memories" consisting of scrap books, pictures, newspapers and sports programs will be a highlight of the evening before the party goes to the Arena.
